

What Easter Can Do to Your “If Onlys”

1 Corinthians 7:17-31

1 Corinthians 7:29-31, “What I mean, brothers and sisters, is that the time is short. From now on those who have wives should live as if they do not; those who mourn, as if they did not; those who are happy, as if they were not; those who buy something, as if it were not theirs to keep; those who use the things of the world, as if not engrossed in them. For this world in its present form is passing away.”

First: Your experience with this world is not where your v _____ is f _____.

Second: Your experience with this world is where your
v _____ is f _____.

1 Corinthians 7:17. “...each person should live as a believer in whatever situation the Lord has assigned to them, just as God has called them.”

1 Corinthians 7:20, “Each person should remain in the situation they were in when God called them.”

1 Corinthians 7:24, “Brothers and sisters, each person, as responsible to God, should remain in the situation they were in when God called them.”

Philippians 4:11-13, “I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do all this through him who gives me strength.”

Don't forget to pick up your free copy of The Pursuit of Happiness: Learning from the Beatitudes. We're offering one per household to all who attend our services. You will find them on display at the exit doors.
